Statutory Provisions Relating to Liquidator's Remuneration

Introduction

When a company goes into liquidation the costs of the proceedings are paid out of its assets. The members therefore have a direct interest in the level of costs and the liquidator's remuneration.

Alternative bases of remuneration

The basis for fixing the liquidator's remuneration is set out in rule 18.16 of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016. The Rule states that the remuneration shall be fixed:

- i as a percentage of the value of the assets which are realised or distributed or both,
- ii by reference to the time properly given by the liquidator and his staff in attending to matters arising in the liquidation, or
- iii as a set amount.

The basis of remuneration may be fixed as any one or more of the bases set out above, and different bases may be fixed in respect of different things done by the liquidator.

Where the basis of remuneration is fixed as set out in (i) above, different percentages may be fixed in respect of different things done by the liquidator.

It is for the members of the company in general meeting to determine:

- a which of the bases set out above are to be fixed and (where appropriate) in what combination, and
- b the percentage or percentages (if any) to be fixed under paragraphs (i) and (ii) and the amount (if any) to be set under paragraph (iii)

If the remuneration is not fixed in this way, the basis of the liquidator's remuneration shall, on application by the liquidator, be fixed by the court, but such an application may not be made by the liquidator unless the liquidator has first sought fixing of the basis by means of a general meeting and, in any event, may not be made more than 18 months after the date of the liquidator's appointment.

Factors to be considered in determining the basis of remuneration

- i The complexity (or otherwise) of the case.
- ii Any responsibility of an exceptional kind or degree which falls on the liquidator.
- iii The effectiveness with which the liquidator appears to be carrying out, or to have carried out, his duties.
- iv The value and nature of the assets with which the liquidator has to deal.
