

Code of Conduct for Business Board Members, Committee or Sub-Committee Members

You are a Board Member of the Business Board and hence you shall have regard to the following principles – selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership in your conduct at all times.

Accordingly, when acting in your capacity as a Board Member of the Business Board or any subsequent committee of the Business Board:

- You must act in a manner consistent with the Business Board’s diversity statement and treat your fellow Board Members, Officers and others you come into contact with when working in their role with respect and courtesy at all times.
- You must act solely in the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person or act to gain financial or other material benefits for yourself, your family, a friend, or close associate.
- You must not place yourself under a financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might be reasonably regarded to influence you in the performance of your official duties.
- When carrying out your Business Board duties you must make all choices, such as making appointments, awarding funding, contracts or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits, based on evidence. You are accountable for your decisions and you must co-operate fully with whatever scrutiny is appropriate to your position. You must be as open as possible about both your decisions and actions and the decisions and actions of the Business Board. In addition, you should be prepared to give reasons for those decisions and actions.
- You must declare any private interests, both pecuniary and non-pecuniary, including membership of any Trade Union, political party or local authority that relates to your Business Board duties. Furthermore, you must take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest. This includes registering and declaring interests in a manner conforming with the procedures set out in the section ‘Registering and declaring pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests’.
- You must, when using or authorising the use by others of the resources of your Business Board, ensure that such resources are not used improperly for political or personal purposes (including party political purposes).

- You must promote and support high standards of conduct when serving in your Business Board post, in particular as characterised by the above requirements, by leadership and example.

Registering and declaring pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests

You must, within 28 days of taking office as a Business Board Member or co-opted Member, notify the Combined Authority Monitoring Officer of any disclosable pecuniary interest, where the pecuniary interest is yours, your spouse's or civil partner's, or is the pecuniary interest of somebody with whom you are living with as a spouse, or as if you were civil partners.

In addition, you must, within 28 days of taking office, notify the Monitoring Officer of any non-pecuniary interest² which your Business Board has decided should be included in the register or which you consider should be included if you are to fulfil your duty to act in conformity with the Seven Principles of Public Life. These non-pecuniary interests will necessarily include your membership of any Trade Union.

Business Board Members should review their individual register of interest before each board meeting and decision-making committee meeting. They must declare any relevant interest(s) at the start of the meeting. If an interest has not been entered onto the Business Board's register, then the member must disclose the interest at any meeting of the Business Board or committee at which they are present, where they have a disclosable interest in any matter being considered and where the matter is not a 'sensitive interest'³.

Following any disclosure of an interest not on the Business Board register or the subject of pending notification, you must notify the Combined Authority Monitoring Officer of the interest within 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure.

Unless dispensation has been granted, you may not participate in any discussion of, vote on, or discharge any function related to any matter in which you have a pecuniary interest. Additionally, you must observe the restrictions the Business Board places on your involvement in matters where you have a pecuniary or non-pecuniary interest as defined by your Business Board.

In signing this document below, you have read, understood and agree to abide with the requirements set out above and, in the Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Combined Authority's Constitution (Chapter 19 – Member Code of Conduct and Complaints Procedure).
