Answer: The production of this report was not the subject of a separate order or fee though was part of the overall programme management service that Arup are providing on the CAM project.

Question 2: And the full version of the technical report?

Answer. A fuller version of the Arup reported has been published as part of the GCP assembly papers of 15th November. This did not incur a separate fee and was included as part of the overall programme. Link here:
