Dear [REDACTED]

Re: Freedom of Information request ref CA372

Thank you for your request for information received on 11th December 2024. The response is given below:

Request:

- Do you provide modern slavery training to your staff, or cover modern slavery as part of a wider training (eg. Adult safeguarding, children's safeguarding etc)? Please answer 'yes, standalone training', 'no', or 'yes, covered as part of other training'
- If you provide modern slavery training, is it limited to one 'type' of modern slavery or is it general? (e.g. 'modern slavery', or on a specific type like 'child' or 'criminal' exploitation?)
- Is your modern slavery training open to all staff?
- Which of the following training formats do you offer?:

e-learning / on-demand module, classroom learning (remote or in-person), or webinar/guest talk. If webinar/guest talk or classroom learning, please share when these trainings have taken place within the past two years.

- What is the duration of the training (if you have access to this information)?
- Does the training contain any of the following themes? Please highlight which are covered:

- Survivors' immigration status

- Changes under the Nationality and Borders Act 2022

- How to secure legal representation or emergency accommodation/support for potential victims

- How to complete a National Referral Mechanism (NRM) referral form -How people with protected characteristics (for example, people of different genders, ages, sexualities, nationalities, and those who are disabled) may experience exploitation
- The need for cultural awareness and sensitivity (a case study/image does not inherently count, unless there is a specific mention or exploration of relevant cultural issues or barriers)

Response:

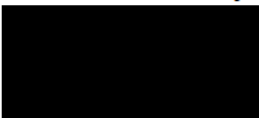

We do not provide Modern Slavery training to our staff. Modern Slavery training should be offered to frontline Local Authority staff - however we are not a Local Authority, and we don't have frontline services
