Freedom of Information Request – ref CA48

I write with reference to your request received on 13 November reference CA48.

Please find the response provided below.

Question: “I understand that you have claimed that people are not interested in the reasons for making an excessive payment to the outgoing Chief Executive. I am very interested in the reasons and justification for this payment. Public funds must be spent wisely and properly and there can be no hiding behind confidentiality. One of the big problems we face today is the excessive payments and salaries paid to council officers. Please provide me with the justification and details of the termination payments.”

Answer: Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Combined Authority and Mr Whiteley came to an agreement to end his employment by mutual agreement. The sum of £94,500 which included sums relating to contractual notice and compensation for loss of office is part of that agreement.
